Leadership Community

Songwriters – Make your statement in 2025 with the Songpreneurs Leadership Community

The Program

Songpreneurs Leaders meet weekly for 1-hour live online training sessions in 4 quarterly courses that meet Monday nights for 8 weeks. This gives us a month break in between sessions to complete assignments. Classes can be attended live or you can watch the video later.

This year's courses are designed to challenge, inspire and encourage you to push ahead with your original music.

Songwriting is hard and doing it professionally is even harder.

But it is also one of the most rewarding things you can do with your time and creativity.

Have you always wanted to do something with your music, but didn't know where to start?

Songpreneurs has been training people to be pros for over a decade and our track record of success includes dozens of hit writers and people living out their dreams.

Large or small, local or worldwide – whatever your ambition, find your home team at Songpreneurs as one of our class of 2025 Leaders.

It's simple.

Using proven, time tested strategies and expert guidance, we work closely with a small, select group of songwriters who are ready to go as far as possible with their writing careers.

Semester One: Statement Songs

Q1 – Writing Your Statement Song &

Q2 – Releasing Your Statement Song

In a time of turmoil, a song can be a saving grace.

What if you had the opportunity to leave a message for the next generation?

What do you want to say?

Enter Statement Songs.

Putting your feelings, beliefs, and stories in songs is a great way to use your creative gifts.

This semester we will study statement songs and explore what is important to our community members through songs show and tell.

In Q1, we'll study song craft and self expression, writing our statement songs and looking at lessons from other statement songs – both hits and examples from our community.

In Q2, we cover the step-by-step independent release process, with a focus on cost effective methods of promotion.

Semester Two: Faces & Places

Q3 – Faces

Q4 – Places

Semester Two courses discuss famous people and places that shape our music landscape.

Learn more about the people and resources that can help and inspire you to succeed.

In Q3 Faces, we look at the people who impacted music through the ages and explore the lessons we can learn from their example.

In Q4 Places, we study places that have inspired the music scene around the world, and trace their impact past, present and future.

These courses help to expand our musical world beyond our normal comfort zone and expose us to lessons we would otherwise miss.

As songwriters we try to balance the intake with the output.

These two courses help us to stoke our creativity and stock up our hook books for writing with our fellow Songpreneurs Leaders.
